

Organisations to Contact in the Event of a Death

Banks/Building Societies	<input type="checkbox"/>
Home Insurance	<input type="checkbox"/>
Electricity	<input type="checkbox"/>
TV Licence	<input type="checkbox"/>
Hire Purchase	<input type="checkbox"/>
Pensions	<input type="checkbox"/>
Pre-booked Holidays	<input type="checkbox"/>
Life Assurance/Insurance	<input type="checkbox"/>
Car Insurance	<input type="checkbox"/>
Gas	<input type="checkbox"/>
Rental Companies	<input type="checkbox"/>
Road Tax	<input type="checkbox"/>
Inland Revenue	<input type="checkbox"/>
Voluntary Services	<input type="checkbox"/>
Medical Equipment on Loan	<input type="checkbox"/>
Credit Card or Store Card	<input type="checkbox"/>
Driving Licence	<input type="checkbox"/>
Telephone	<input type="checkbox"/>
Club Membership	<input type="checkbox"/>
Library Books to be Returned	<input type="checkbox"/>
Passport	<input type="checkbox"/>
Post Office	<input type="checkbox"/>
Council Tax	<input type="checkbox"/>
Dentist	<input type="checkbox"/>
Premium Bonds	<input type="checkbox"/>
Council Housing Departments	<input type="checkbox"/>

While these are the main organisations you should advise, this list is by no means comprehensive.